

Our unique ACCUREL® technology converts any demanding liquid additive into an easy to handle, free flowing masterbatch.

TAC and TAIC are cross-linking additives to boost the crosslinking density, chemical resistance, heat distortion temperature, aging properties and mechanical stability of your product!

Crosslinking can take place using peroxide or e-beam irradiation. At higher temperatures, TAIC is the favoured option, a sufficient suction should be placed at the extruder outlet.

